

PLEASE JOIN US FOR THE ANNUAL WASHINGTON MAP SOCIETY DINNER

Thursday, 25 May 2017
6pm - 9pm, dinner served at 7pm

Dr. Stephen J. Hornsby (University of Maine), will be discussing his most recent book, Picturing America: The Golden Age of Pictorial Maps. Showcasing a diverse array of vivid and popular pictorial maps, Hornsby has unearthed the most fascinating and visually striking maps the United States has to offer!

Location: US Capitol Visitor Center, Room HVC-20 IAB
First Street NE, Washington D.C. 20515

Registration: Tickets are $75 per person. Payment can be made online at <https://wms38.eventbrite.com/> or by check. Checks can be sent to Peter Porazzo, WMS Treasurer, 1924 Tysons Trace Drive, Vienna, VA 22182. Please make checks payable to "Washington Map Society" and mail before May 15, 2017. After May 15, ticket prices increase to $85 per person.

Event Details: 6-7pm Cocktail Hour (open bar with wine and beer); 7pm Buffet Dinner (beef tenderloin, grilled salmon, salad, sautéed vegetables, roasted potatoes, and assorted dessert tarts; vegetarian entrée available upon request); 7:30pm Guest Speaker

Getting There: The best way to reach the US Capitol Visitor Center is by taxi or Metro. Capitol South Metro station is 1.5 blocks south of the entrance to the Visitor Center, and Union Station Metro is 4 blocks north. There is public parking at Union Station, and taxis are available to drop off at the intersection of First St. and East Capitol St. There is very limited street parking in the area.

For questions or more information, please contact WMS VP, Eliane Dotson, at 763-257-2267.
